The Washington Mission.

The point was well and forcibly pressed by Mr. Clark, of Craven, in the debate in the Convention, on Saturday, that the resolutions of Mr. McDonald, of Moore, were, in their present verbiage and shape, an indirect if not a positive, endorsement of the Radicals of Congress. The preamble to the resolutions expresses the hope that was felt "that the President (during the recess of the Convention) would have been authorized by Congress to declare the State restored to the Union." As the President, in an official proclamation, has emphatically declared that very thing, the irresistible inference that flows from the resolutions is, as Mr. Clark contended, that the President has done, without the consent of Congress, what he had no right to do. In other words, it is a direct endorsement of Stevens and Sumner, and is an assertion that Congress has sole control of the subject of re construction. It ignores the Executive prerogative, and repudiates, besides, the theory upon which the President's policy has been based, i. e. that the States of the South are and always have been in the Union, they having failed to make their revolution successful. Still more than this: Does not the Convention see that it will stultify itself, by the adoption of these resolutions, after having itself declared the ordinance of secession, passed by the Convention of 1861, to have been at all times null and void? Practically, this will be the effect; for, whatever their professions to the contrary, all the legislation of the Radicals thus far, and all that is proposed for the future, is founded upon the assumption that the insurgent States are yet to be restored. In their haste and eagerness to eat dirt, ad nauseam, some of the members of the Convention are in danger of eating their own words, as well.

We shall not believe, until the actual result forces us to a different conviction, that the Convention is prepared to place itself in a position of antagonism to President Johnson, as it would do by the adoption of these resolutions. We do not over-state the fact, when we assert that ninety-nine one-hundredths of the people of North Carolina gratefully endorse and support his wise and beneficent policy. We do not exaggerate, when we further declare the opinion that, in the same proportion, they would prefer to endure their present harsh grievances, rather than voluntarily accept the ostracism, proscription and degradation of the Stevens-Sumner-Holden-Brownlow programme. Profoundly anxious for reconciliation, and willing to do, as they have already done, everything that comports with honor, fidelity and safety, in order to accomplish it, there is still a depth of debasement to which they are unwilling voluntarily to descend. They may be precipitated down to it by the strong arm of Radical fury and vindictiveness, and there may be recreant men in their own midst who will assist in giving them a thrust in the same direction, but we cannot yet believe that an enlightened Convention of the people, assembled to reflect their sentiments and interests, and acting under the solemn obligations which the times devolve upon them, will aid in the work.

To return to the subject of the mission: We take the liberty of warning the Convention in time, to beware of their action. So far as the press of the State is an index of the popular will and opinion, it is unanimous, as yet, with one scurvy exception, in its denunciation of the step,—particularly, that feature of it which proposes to consult Congress upon the subject of reconstruction. Such a proposition is an absurdity, in that no one can specify the means of approaching Congress in its organized capacity; and it will entail a burning disgrace upon the State, if it is contemplated that the State of North Carolina shall hawk for her rights in the Union with such individuals as Stevens, Sumner, et id omne.

P. S.—Since the foregoing was written, the Special Committee to whom the resolutions were referred, it will be seen by yesterday's proceedings of the Convention, have reported them back in a modified form—expunging the obnoxious portions of the preamble animadverted upon above, and providing for a commission to wait upon the authorities of the Government, instead of upon the President and on Congress, eo nomine. The modified resolutions, in this respect, are open to the same objection as the original. There is no necessity for any Commission, at all,—the President having already announced what was required at our hands, and having declared that we have fully complied with his demands,—but a proposition, particularly, that contemplates an application to Congress, aggregately or individually, directly or indirectly, will, we trust, be summarily rejected and spurned.

MEDICAL CONVENTION OF N. C.—This body assembles in this City, to-day.

We are requested to inform delegates that they are expected to assemble in the Supreme Court Room, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The General Synod of the Lutheran Church, in the Southern States, will hold its annual convention in St. John's Church, Cabarrus county, N. C., commencing on the 14th. day of June, 1866.

Political Parties.

It cannot be successfully controverted, that the untoward and disastrous results which have befallen the country, within the last five years, were the result of the fierce conflict of parties, the one to hold and the other to gain the control of the government. Conservatism was at too low an ebb in the country, to counteract and defeat the ends and aims of partizan rivalry.—The interests of the whole nation were but as a feather in the balance, when contrasted with the stake the demagogues and fanatics had in the success of party.

At the North this same bitter, partizan rivalry still exists. The so-called Republican party will sacrifice political consistency, the Constitution and the country, to retain its power. This is a foregone conclusion, and no stone will be left unturned to defeat, and if possible, to demolish the Democratic party. The Democratic party, with a platform conservative, national and constitutional, is nevertheless too weak to contend with the opposition. Its hatred of the opposition is not less intense than that of its enemies, and its eager pursuit after power, after the control of the government, is only equalled by the determination of the Republicans to hold it. It is thus that, between the two, without any intention on the part of the Democratic party to effect that object, the South is to be ground to powder, if help comes from no other source. We say the Democratic party is too weak to accomplish its object, however good that object may be. Though composed of peace and war Democrats, the party is liable to the stigma the unpopular odium of having opposed a war for the restoration of the Union. Many of them may truthfully deny this destructive charge, yet the public mind at the North cannot be made to think otherwise. The most rational conclusion therefore must be reached, that while the history of the war is fresh in the memory of the North, no party liable to be stigmatised as the anti-war, anti-Union party, can by any possibility be successful.

With such facts before us, we are forced to the conviction, that any reliance upon the Democratic party at the North, at present, to defeat the Republican party and the utter prostration of the South by the agency of Radical measures, will prove a failure. We, therefore, hail, as one of the best signs of the times, the organization of the Constitutional Union party, composed of conservative men hitherto acting with both the Republican and Democratic parties.—Leading men throughout the country, who are truly conservative, both Democrats and Republicans, are rallying to that party. It is believed to have the sanction of the President, and certainly gives hope of an organization around which all conservative men can rally, who give their support to the policy of President Johnson and an early reconciliation between the States.

If this view be correct, what is the plain duty of the people of the North Carolina? In this State, whatever may have been the former political differences of our people, it cannot be doubted, that, upon the only vital question which now concerns us, there is a wonderful approach to unanimity. Four-fifths, at least, of the people of North Carolina are united in the support and defence of President Johnson and his policy, as opposed to "strait-sectism" or Radical measures. Our people may almost be said to be a unit, in their utter abhorrence and condemnation of the policy of the Radical Congress, and in their desire for the restoration of a Constitutional Union, under the Constitution as it is, without further amendment. Gov. Worth is the representative and leader of the Constitutional Union men of North Carolina. He is identified actively with the success of President Johnson's policy, as opposed to Holden-Brownlowism and Radicalism, and his supporters all over the State sympathise with him.—Opposition to Gov. Worth, therefore, must embolden and encourage Radicalism, and is calculated to weaken the influence of the President and to engender a spirit of collision and discord, where none should exist.

If the friends of the Holden-Brownlow faction wish to try their strength and prolong a controversy in the State, that has been productive of nothing but evil, they of course have the right to do so, but it requires no prophetic ken to predict their utter overthrow. Intrinsically, this is the only issue in North Carolina: Shall the liberal constitutional policy of President Johnson prevail, or shall strait-sectism, Brownlowism and Radicalism be in the ascendant?

All Hail! Edgecombe!

At the County Court of Edgecombe, held last week, the following members of the Special Court were present, viz: Ex-Gov. H. T. Clark, Chairman; W. S. Battle, David Cobb, L. R. Cherry and W. F. Lewis, Esquires. But little business, beyond the usual routine, was done.

The report of the Finance committee, of which Judge Howard was chairman, elicited some discussion. The report stated the nominal debt of the county to be $128,500, in Confederate currency, contracted in Confederate times. This sum, scaled to its gold value, amounted to only $5,201, which the committee urged should be funded so soon as it could be done, in order to prevent the necessity of increased taxation. In the discussion, repudiation was hinted at; this brought Judge Howard to his feet, and in an eloquent and forcible speech he urged the Court to vindicate the integrity of old Edgecombe by immediate action in support of the report.

On this occasion a full bench of the Justices occupied their places, and the following just and sensible resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the report of the Committee of Finance be adopted, recognizing the obligation of the Court to pay the real value of the Funds received by the County for indigent families and other purposes, and that the Committee of Finance be instructed to confer with the holders of the evidences of such indebtedness, and report a satisfactory mode of funding or paying such indebtedness to the next February Term."

We hope that similar action will be taken by every County in the State. The example of Edgecombe is not only worthy of imitation, but she is entitled to the highest praise.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

MONDAY, June 4.

The Convention was called to order at ten o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. J. M. Atkinson, of the Presbyterian Church.

The Journal of Saturday was read and approved.

Mr. McGehee, for the select Committee to which was referred Mr. McDonald's resolutions declaring what has been done, and appointing a Committee to ascertain what is necessary to be done, to restore the State to the Federal Union, reported the following as a substitute therefor:

Whereas, the people of the State of North Carolina have manifested their loyalty to the general Government by promptly adopting such measures as were deemed necessary to restore their relations to that Government, to-wit: An ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of secession; an ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina; an ordinance prohibiting the payment of all public debts created or incurred in aid of the rebellion; which said ordinances have become a part of the organic law of the State: And whereas, the relations of the State to the general Government have not yet been fully recognized; and whereas, the people of the State do ardently desire that whatever obstacles are still in the way may be removed:

Be it Resolved, That a Committee of seven be appointed by the President of this Convention to proceed to Washington and confer with the authorities of the general Government and report the results of their conference to this Convention at an early day.

Mr. Ward introduced an ordinance to incorporate the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Company. Referred to a standing committee of five, to be styled the committee on Corporations.

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, an ordinance for exchanging the stocks of the State for bonds issued before the year 1861.

Mr. McRae, an ordinance to enable the Fayetteville and Florence Railroad Company to establish a National Bank in town of Fayetteville. Referred to the committee on Currency.

Mr. Grissom, a resolution to hold evening sessions from and after to-day. Lies over under rule.

Mr. Wright, from the committee to which was referred the petition of Rev. Thos. D. Fleury for relief from pedlar's tax for the year 1865, submitted an ordinance to grant such relief, accompanied by a lengthy and humorous report, setting forth the reasons why the committee, while recommending relief in this particular instance, were opposed to its further extension.

Mr. Pearsall moved to lay the report and ordinance on the table, which was not agreed to.

The Convention proceeded to consider the amended Constitution.

Mr. Phillips moved to amend the Declaration of Rights by adding the following:

Sec. 27. All Courts shall be open, and every person for an injury done him in his lands, goods, person or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law, and right and justice administered without sale, denial or delay. Adopted.

Sec. 28. No soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

The consideration of those sections of Article 2nd, of the Constitution, which relate to the basis of representation, was postponed for the present.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, the following section was interpolated in Article II. between sections 13 and 14, viz:

"The style of the acts and laws shall be, "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, as follows:"

Mr. Moore, of Wake, moved to amend by adding the following section:

"Each member of the General Assembly before his taking his seat shall take an oath or affirmation that he is constitutionally qualified to take his seat."

On motion of Mr. Buxton, the amendment was amended by adding the words "to the best of his knowledge and belief."

The amendment as amended was then adopted—yeas 88, nays 11.

Mr. Smith, of Johnston, moved to amend section 22, by striking out the words "by one-fifth of the members present." (The section as it stands requires a call for the yeas and nays in the General Assembly to be sustained by one-fifth of the members present.)

Mr. Smith, of Johnston, said that this amendment merely proposed to restore the Constitution as it formerly stood. The change requiring a motion for the yeas and nays to be sustained by one fifth of the members present was made by the Convention of 1861. Messrs. Turner and Leach, in opposing the spirit of secession manifested in the State Senate in 1860-61, had annoyed the secessionists by repeated calls for the yeas and nays. He believed the change was made with a view to silencing the voices of loyal men, and depriving them of a record.

Mr. Eaton did not see how any loyal man could object to the section as it stood. It was substantially the same as the provision contained in the Constitution of the United States upon the same subject. The language is almost identical.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Buxton moved to amend Sec. 24 by inserting after the word "Treasurer" the word "Comptroller." Not agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Phillips, this section was further amended by striking out the words "and Council of State.

On motion of Mr. Ferebee, Sec. 19 was amended by striking out the words "before the meeting of the General Assembly," and inserting the words "when ever the General Assembly is not in session." This section was further amended, on motion of Mr. Eaton, by inserting the words "of election" after the word "writs."

On motion of Mr. Furches, Sec. 2 of article III was amended by striking out the words "or above" and inserting the words "of at least."

Mr. Logan moved to amend the same section by striking out the words "five years" and inserting the words "ten years immediately preceeding his election." Not agreed to; yeas 33, nays 62.

Mr. Logan moved to strike out, in the same section, the word "five" and insert "ten." Not agreed to.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, offered a substitute for article IV, except sections 3 and 4, of the Constitution, as reported by the committee to revise the Constitution. [This amendment was ordered to be printed and referred to the committee on revisal of the Constitution.]

Article IV in relation to the Judicial Department was then passed over informally for the present.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, section 1st. of article V was amended by striking out after the words "Almighty God" the word "or" and inserting the word "and" in its stead.

The Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

[The Reporter, in giving the names of the committee appointed on Mr. McDonald's resolutions, was mistaken as to one of its members. Mr. Winston is not a member of the committee. For Mr. Winston the report should have said Mr. Thompson.]

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS EDITORS:—Since the present Convention has thought proper to take some few matters of legislation into their hands, (par parenthesis, we are of opinion they ought so to do,) we would very respectfully call their attention, though the columns of the Sentinel, to several matters that we conceive to of considerable importance to the good citizens of this State.

First, the act to change the jurisdiction of the courts, &c., better known as the "stay law act," is so utterly incomprehensible in many of its provisions, that even the gigantic intellect of our Chief Justice Pearson would be sorely puzzled to give us much light on it; but, in all its obscurity, ambiguity and conflicting provisions, two points are patent,—first, that there is no provision made to stay the collection of County Court judgments, obtained prior to 1861, whose number might well be said to be legion, no less than seventy-five or eighty having been revived at the May term of our (Granville) court, the money upon which must be forthcoming at November term. This, of course, involves the sale, by the Sheriff, at great sacrifices, of the houses and lands of debtors.

Secondly, debts contracted since the war stand in the same relation to debts contracted before the war, as to the remedy, when within the jurisdiction of a Justice of the Peace, viz: Twelve months time is had before the warrant can be tried, and then the payments are by instalments every twelve months. It appears to us that there should be no interference about the collection of claims on debts contracted since the war, before any tribunal. The law in regard to debts, before the war, is well enough, provided it stands the test of the Supreme Court, which, we are of opinion, it will not.

Again, the Legislature, in its blindness, in order to prevent negro testimony before the Courts in cases alone in which he is concerned, have over-reached themselves and opened as it were the flood-gates to this kind of evidence; and, more than that, there can be no question, we opine, that the negro, under the present status of things, can testify in all cases, whether he is concerned or not, before any tribunal in Law or Equity, orally or by deposition. This insane legislation needs some wholesome correction.—The negro, as a matter of right, ought to be allowed to testify in matters concerning himself, but we do not know that we are willing to go further than this now. It would not be anything amiss to alter the rules of evidence, giving the defendant a right to be heard on the witness stand, as well as the plaintiff, as is the law in England. No harm would result from this; on the contrary, much would be done in furtherance of justice by this means. H.

Peace Institute.

At a meeting of the Stockholders of Peace Institute, held in this city on the 4th inst., in obedience to a previous call, a majority of the Stockholders being present, in person or by proxy, Rev. J. M. Atkinson was called to the chair, and T. McGee appointed Secretary.

The question as to the propriety of attempting at present to raise funds, for the completion of the building, having arisen, a discussion ensued, during which a large majority of the Stockholders expressed themselves in favor of completing the buildings at as early a day as possible, and taking such steps as may be necessary to effect that object. Whereupon, on motion, Rev. J. M. Atkinson, Dr. W. R. Miller and Thaddeus McGee were appointed a Committee to prepare a general plan to raise the necessary funds, and to report the same at an adjourned meeting to be held at the office of Dr. W. R. Miller, Raleigh, on Tuesday, June 12th, at five o'clock, P. M. The absent Stockholders are requested to be present in person or by proxy.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
RALEIGH, June 4th., 1866.

Notice to Holders of North Carolina Bonds and Coupons.

I am prepared, in accordance with the provisions of the act of March 10th., 1866, known as the "Funding act," to deliver bonds of this State of the denomination of $1000 in exchange for past due bonds and coupons of bonds of the State issued under acts passed prior to May 20., 1861.

The $500 and $100 bonds are promised by the engraver in a short while.

The new bonds are six per cent untaxables, dated January 1st., 1866, running thirty-four years, with semi-annual coupons, payable, as is also the principal when due, at the National Bank of the Republic in New York.

Applicants must pay in the proper securities or in currency the value of the bonds to date of payment, including interest from July 1st., 1866, the law requiring they should be sold at par.

Coupons or past due bonds may be forwarded for exchange directly to me, (at the risk of the holder,) and bonds will be returned in exchange, provided some party is authorized to sign receipts on my books.

For example, if a holder forwards his securities by Express, let him authorize the Express Company to receive, and receipt for the bonds.

Where coupons are payable in New York, the bonds from which they are cut need not be forwarded, but only the coupons.

The same rule applies to coupons payable at Raleigh during the war, of the Western Rail Road and the Western North Carolina Rail Road, as I can identify them without the bonds.

Coupons of bonds issued to the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Rail Road Company, July 1st., 1862, must be forwarded to this office with the bonds for identification.

Past due coupons, including those of date of April 1866, will be funded now,—the July and October 1866 coupons when due.

Bonds past due bear interest from maturity, which interest is fundable. Bonds of Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company endorsed by the State, stand on the same footing as State bonds.

Holders of registered bonds must forward a receipt for the interest due to last regular day of payment.

The minor details of the exchange will be arranged by correspondence.

KEMP P. BATTLE,
1t Public Treasurer.

ONE of the many startling telegrams relative to the recent movements of the Fenians announces that General Fitzhugh Lee is to head the cavalry forces of the invading army. This statement should be received with caution. There are two generals in Virginia named Fitzhugh Lee, the one a son, the other a nephew, of General Robert E. Lee. A personal friend of these gentlemen, now in this city, assures us that neither of these officers is at all likely to embark in such a movement, and is quite positive that their own judgment and convictions of duty, no less than the influence and counsels of the great leader of the Southern armies, would induce them to avoid all participation in this rash enterprise.—Nat. Intelligencer.

COPY RIGHT SECURED.

"A Calendar for the Christian Era, combining the Julian and Gregorian modes of reckoning time, by James Rumley, of N. C.

The subscriber having copy-righted this most valuable of all the "Calendars" ever before offered to the public, will be prepared in a few days to supply the demand for them to any extent.

Many attempts have been made, from time to time, to secure a Calendar, by which all the dates of the Christian Era could be accurately, and at the same time readily, found. These attempts have heretofore signally failed because the authors have sought to condense too much, and because they were really not conversant with the subject of which they treated, and which they vainly endeavored to elucidate.

I claim for the Calendar now presented, perfect simplicity of arrangement, combined with the most infallible accuracy. The plan is so simple that any one who can use an ordinary Almanac, or Counting House Calendar, cannot fail to see clearly into the working of this. Time past, present or future can be immediately found. Its accuracy will bear the test of the most rigid scrutiny. I invite criticisms, and confidently appeal to an enlightened public judgment for a frank expression of opinion as to its merits.

To supply a want long felt, the author has appended to the Calendar, under the head of "Explanatory Remarks," a succinct, but most valuable history of the Julian Calendar from the time of Julius Cæsar, and of the astronomical causes which led to the change made by Pope Gregory XIII, in 1582. These notes alone are worth the price of the Calendar.

If any object to the space the Calendar occupies, the objection is answered by the reply that any attempt at condensation would be a sacrifice of simplicity, the fatal rock on which every previous attempt has been stranded.

Every professional man, every mechanic and farmer, all merchants and tradesmen should supply themselves with copies, at once. Price $1.

THE SENTINEL.

Tuesday, June 5, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TRIAL OF MAJOR JOHN H. GEE.

SYNOPSIS OF TESTIMONY.

FIFTY-SECOND DAY.

TUESDAY, May 22, 1866.

David S. Walker, sworn.—Fifty-three years old, Governor of Florida,—during six years preceding my election was Judge of the Supreme Court of the State. Have known the accused from his boyhood. Had an intimate relation with his family for twenty-nine years.

His character, universally, without exception, is that of a gentleman of great worth and a brave man, but modest and shrinking, even to sensitiveness. If, as Governor, I had had to select a man out of the State of Florida who would have been least likely to do a cruel or inhuman thing, I would have chosen Major Gee. His sympathies were universally for the distressed, particularly from his own part of the State. His character among the colored people was good. Just before I left, application was made to me by the negroes for the Representative rooms to hold a festival for his benefit.

Cross-Examined.—This application was made by Mrs. Douglas on behalf of the negroes. So far as I am informed it originated entirely with the negroes.

Chas. Magill, Physician, Richmond, Va.—I visited Salisbury in January, 1865, for the purpose of having some prisoners released,—from Maryland and one from Pennsylvania. I had an interview with Major Gee and with some of the prisoners. I got a certificate from Major Gee recommending them to Gen. Ould. He had objected to exchange them because there were no special exchanges. Had an interview with him as soon as I reached Richmond. He said he had sent on to have them placed upon this recommendation. Major Gee furnished me every facility. I was in the habit of operating on Federal soldiers—operated on one in the prison.

It was no worse than I had seen it elsewhere. I found the prisoners were, as far as they had the means to do it, made comfortable.

I had been with some of the prisoners when they were born and was anxious to have them return. They made no complaints to me, but were anxious to get home. I was not restricted from talking to them freely. One of them was a tailor and through my influence he got such articles as were necessary to carry on his trade. The prison was improved since I saw it in August; ditches had been dug.

Judge Ould was very anious to make these exchanges, but said, if I do that, it will be a bad precedent, and we want to make a thorough exchange, a clean sweep.

When I went back, he had sent on their names and they were exchanged. This exchange was upon Maj. Gee's recommendation.

We went around and my attention was particularly called to this ditch. Gee remarked that he intended to make cross ditches.

At the time I visited, I was in company with George P. Kane, and his object was to bring about an exchange between a Major in the Confederate army and another gentlemian who was in the prison. Maj. Gee seemed to be as anxious as most persons in charge of prisoners, to do all he could, so far as I observed. I mean the prisons I have seen on this side.

Cross-Examined.—I was a Surgeon in the Confederate army. I had a kind of roying commission. I determined to benefit suffering on both sides. My practice was anywhere. These I went after were citizen prisoners.

I took the papers in January, and when I went to see Col. Ould he told me he had attended to it. One of the men, Kaufman, was taken after the battle of Gettysburg. He was Steward at the hospital.

Jas. J. Wilson, aged 45, Bethlehem Pa., Physician.—I received a letter by flag of truce that there was a young man in prison and to do any thing I could for him. I went to Salisbury and relieved his wants, gave him some money and a blanket.

I never saw Maj. Gee. They allowed me to give the young man $100 one month—in all $295. I took him down some bed clothing and had some shirts made for him. My brother took him provisions. When he was paroled I walked with him and offered him more money, but he refused.

The Masonic order relieved prisoners of war who were Masons.

John Wilson, Jr., 38 years of age, Alamance Co. N. C.—Physician—teaching at present. Practiced medicine since 1852, except four years and a half. Was surgeon in charge of prison hospitals; went there on 22d. January 1865, relieved Dr. Curry.

I drew supplies from the Medical Purveyor at Charlotte, beds and bedding, besides medicine and articles of diet. My impression is that he was also required to furnish underclothing.

I had eight assistant Surgeons, I think. The duty of all but one was to attend to the prisoners, and of one to take care of the guard.—There was no distinction in the treatment of different classes of prisoners.

We had no sick call in the morning. They were mostly attended to by a medical man named Kauffman. There was a sick call in the afternoon. There were reports to me of the sick in the hospital. My practice was to visit the hospital every day. There were wounded men in the hospital when I went there; they were said to be wounded at the outbreak. I think there were none in the hospital wounded by the guard after I got there. There was no case of putting a live man in the dead cart after I got there; if such a thing had happened, I presume it would have been talked about.

I think Dr. Curry died about the 12th. of February. After I relieved him he had charge of No 9, outside. Think he was sick about four days. Maj. Gee had nothing to do with my requisitions. The supplies were deficient and greatly so. We got along pretty well with medicines. Major Gee did everything that I asked him. I drew commissary supplies on my own requisitions—Major Gee had nothing to do with it. I purchased with the hospital fund all I could for the benefit of the prisoners.

MURDER.—If the accounts which we have heard be correct, a murder of the most aggravated character was committed at Auburn, in this County, on Saturday.

It is stated that an altercation occurred, at that place, between Ransom Hodge and —— Sturdivant, when John Sturdivant, an elder brother of the latter, interposed to prevent further difficulty. At a later hour, the younger Sturdivant started to go towards a house in which Hodge had been locked up, when the elder endeavored to stop him. While thus engaged, Hodge shot him (the elder) through the window, killing him instantly. Hodge was arrested and brought to this City, and on yesterday, after an investigation before a Magistrate, was fully committed to jail, to answer the charge of murder.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.—This ecclesiastical body, lately in session at Newbern, adjourned on yesterday, after a session of several days.

NEW ENGLAND PURITANS AND "THE NIGGER."—The New York Herald, commenting upon the recent developments of the practices of officers of the negro Bureau, thus brings down its Thor hammer upon the crowns of the New England Puritans now operating in the South:

The moral sense of the people of the North has been shocked by the developments following the investigation of General Steedman in regard to the working of the Freedmen's Bureau in the South. * * * *

This whole system of a Freedmen's Bureau is a relic of the past. It is an heir-loom descending from the old Puritans of New England to the new Puritans of the present day. It comes from the times when Quakers were hung and when that matchless Puritanical robber, Captain Miles Standish, made raids upon the poor Indians, stole their lands, destroyed their dwellings and crops, and forced the maltreated savages into a bondage worse than that of African slavery in any period of the world's history.—As the Puritans of 1620 were the harsh and relentless taskmasters of that day, with the "untutored savage" as their victim, so the poor freedman of 1866 is the victim of the descendants of that canting, fanatical, tyrannical and cruel sect. There are thousands of Miles Standishes in the South who have taken plantations, either from their rightful owners or from the Government, and are now having them cultivated by the forced and non requited labor of the unlettered freedman. These white taskmasters and negro drivers comprise the crop of Puritans of the present generation.

They have been mostly raised in New England, many have gone South as chaplains in the regiments from that section, while others have been sent, either under State or national authority, as special commissioners, school superintendents for the blacks, negro enlisting officers and in other capacities involving no particular danger to their precious persons. The true New England soldier is both liberal and brave, fearless, and self-reliant, high-minded, honorable and conscientious. You will find no such men as these driving negroes upon plantations that have been stolen, nor trading off the services and the bodies of freedmen to the highest bidder. All that disreputable work is left to the canting, hypocritical, whining scamps who roll up the whites of their eyes in holy horror before New England audiences about the sin of slavery, the brutality of slave owners and the miserable condition of the bondman; and yet no sooner are the shackles knocked from the limbs of the slave and he be once a freedman than they seize that moment to force him back into a bondage more hideous than ever. Thus have the New England Puritans of 1866 emulated the sordid example of their forefathers in 1620 and restored slavery in the South in a more detestable form than ever. Surely General Howard should be excused from keeping such company any longer than he can help.

The Hon. James M. Mason has arrived at Quebec.

THE FENIANS.

BRITISH VERSION OF THE FIGHT!

Fenian Reinforcements Hourly Pouring In,

ORDER FROM GEN. GRANT.

NEW YORK, June 3.

The British version of the figit at Ridgway is that the attack was made by British troops, who drove the Fenians. A number were killed on both sides. The volunteers were expected to hold their own for reinforcements to reach them, which were momentarily expected.

American neutrality is severely censured, and the people declare that the government is in collusion with the Fenians.

The general impression here is that the present movement is a feint to cover the real point of attack, which will be on the line of the St. Lawrence river.

Canadian troops are stationed along the line to prevent Fenians crossing. The suspension bridge is carefully guarded and all travellers scrutinized.

Movements of men towards the frontier are reported from every part of the country. The town of St. Albans, Vermont, is the rendezvous of reinforcements. The 3rd. Fenian infantry, 1200 strong, and a Fenian cavalry regiment left Boston for that point yesterday morning.—Smaller detachments from Syracuse, Elmira, Troy, Rochester, Lowell, Rutland, and other places, are continually arriving.

One of Mosby's men is said to have command of the cavalry regiment from Boston, and the Fenians say that Fitzhugh Lee is to command the cavalry of the army.

450,000 rounds of ammunition have been shipped from Columbus, Ohio, within the past few days, for New York, and 150,000 for Chicago, and 30,000 muskets for Buffalo,—all supposed to be for the use of the Fenians.

Stevens has issued a manifesto at Philadelphia, protesting against the movement of Sweeney, on the ground that it is not desirable to commit any breach of neutrality by which this country may be compromised.

LATER.

BUFFALO, June 3.

Gen. Grant passed for the West, at noon, yesterday. He sent the following telegram to Gen. Meade:

BUFFALO, June 2.

Maj. Gen. Meade, U. S. A., Philadelphia:

Gen. Barry is here. Assign him to the general command from Buffalo to the mouth of the Niagara river. The State authorities should call out the militia on the frontier to prevent hostile expeditions leaving the United States, and to save private property from destruction by mobs.

(Signed) U. S. GRANT,
Lt. General.

Still Later.

No further definite intelligence from the Fenians. One report is that the Fenians drove back the British, capturing 100, killing nineteen and wounding more.

A Canadian dispatch asserts that the volunteers only fell back for re-inforcements.

A large number of Fenians are reported to have crossed Niagara river yesterday. A Buffalo dispatch says that a fight will occur to-day, (Sunday.)

The Fenians are said still to hold Fort Erie.

A Montreal dispatch says that Gen. Sweeney is at St. Albans with a large force. All this needs authentication.

The Herald's special dispatches contain some particulars of the battle at Ridgeway: The Fenians, 1000 strong, were met by the volunteers, whom they charged, but, a swamp intervening, Col. O'Neill ordered a halt. The volunteers, beleiving the Fenians to be retreating, charged in their turn, which was met by the Fenians, who routed the volunteers and they fled to Fort Colburne, completely demoralized. Fenian loss, six killed and fifteen wounded. Volteer loss, 23 killed and a number wounded.—After stopping pursuit, the Fenians proceeded to Fort Erie, leaving a guard over the wounded on both sides.

The counsel will announce their readiness for trial. In the event of its postponement, they will demand bail.

Maj. Hennessey, Assistant District Attorney, will represent the government.

Burton N. Harrison, former Private Secretary of Mr. Davis, is here.

Late from Europe.

NEW YORK, June 3.

The Steamer Herman has arrived, with Liverpool dates to the 22nd.

Paris telegrams to the London Post state definitely that a conference has been arranged between France, England and Russia, on the one side, and Austria, Prussia and Italy, on the other. It is to meet in Paris, with Drouyn De L'Huys as President.

The London Herald says that the Conference can do nothing, and that war is certain, unless the combatants become exhausted under the burden of preparations. No re axation of military arrangements; and while the universal feeling is pacific, a solution seems hopeless.

Prussia has decided that, in the event of war, enemies' merchant ships shall not be liable to capture on the high seas, provided a similar rule be adopted by them.

It is asserted that Austria refused to discuss any proposition for cession of Venetia. The formation of volunteer regiments commenced on 21st. ult.

A Vienna dispatch says that the treaty between Prussia and Italy is offensive and defensive, and continues until the end of the present year.

Later.

CHEERING SIGNS.—Every day brings us additional proofs that the friends of the President and his policy will stand shoulder to shoulder in the fall elections. No matter what party they have acted with heretofore, a common enemy and a common cause will induce every true patriot to make any sacrifice to restore the Union and save the country from another war. The iron heel of fanaticism, in its mad career, is now attempting to crush out State rights, and if successful it will soon seek to extinguish State lines. If there ever was a time that eternal vigilance was the price of liberty, it is at the present moment. We believe that the soldiers of the country will rally against any attempt at centralization.—National Intelligencer.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The Quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast supersecting all the ale ed quack nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the [so called] remedies of these, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are re-toned; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Uterous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

WARRENTON, N. C.,

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort.

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

AN ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c., can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail road will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

NOTICE,

OF

Importance to all whom it may concern.

—READ,—

The undersigned, Agent of the ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY for the State of North Carolina, would respectfully inform those who represent deceased friends, insured in this Company, to apply at my office for the settlement of Policies, as soon as they can consistently and conveniently do so.

MR. JUSTUS KINSEY'S death has been announced in our community. He was one of our most worthy citizens and active business men, and took the precaution, in time, to provide for his now sorrowing loved ones by an Insurance on his life for $5,000 in the gallant "Ætna," which has never refused to pay a loss promptly. And in this case the persons entitled to receive the amount will please present themselves and the policy at my office for payment.

Here we are furnished with an example of prudent forethought worthy of imitation by each and all who have hearts to love, and hands to provide for their dependent loved ones. The investment of $150 has provided in cash for this family.

No man should neglect a transaction so important.
